

POTOMAC FEVER

By FLETCHER KNEBEL

Khrushchev sounds a bit hysterical. You'd feel frustrated too if you claimed you were running a paradise and every day 2,000 of your angels flew off to live it up with the devil.

* * * *

Suggested security poster on careless talk to hang in the office of Gen. Lemnitzer, chairman of the Joint Chiefs: "Sh-sh. Senator Fulbright is listening."

* * * *

Welfare Secretary Ribicoff orders auto makers to rid cars of "blowby" fumes. There's so much smog over some cities, a fellow can't find his way to hi-jack a plane.

* * * *

Mrs. Kennedy will hold a concert on the White House lawn. Even in cultural matters, this Kennedy administration believes in going to the grass roots.

* * * *

Ode to Kennedy and Senator Bill Fulbright, who would muzzle military officers on politics: Jack and Bill, they get no thrill from military speeches. It ain't right, for Bill Fulbright should be the one who preaches.